

NOTICE OF ACCOMMODATIONS FOR RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION – Policy JEFA

Students will be permitted released time for religious instruction in compliance with state law and established procedures.

Students released for religious instruction shall be expected to attend such instruction classes on a regular basis. Attendance records shall be maintained. The District may deny the privilege of released time to students who absent themselves from the religious instruction after requesting the privilege.

The District shall be released from all liability for a pupil who is absent from school for this program.
