TEACHING STAFF

POSITION

ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNER (ELL) Teacher - (Part-Time)
MONROE HIGH SCHOOL

DESCRIPTION

The School District of Monroe seeks an energetic and passionate English Language Learner (ELL) Teacher to work with the amazing students, parents, and staff at Monroe High School. This is a part-time teaching position in a progressive high school that serves approximately 700 students in grades 9-12. The person in this position will work collaboratively with an experienced and dedicated team of educators and pupil service providers. This position currently serves a caseload of approximately 50 students across multiple learning environments. An amazing ELL support staff member is working alongside the ELL Teacher and students.

Candidates with experience working with students with ELL needs are preferred. Bilingual candidates will also be given special consideration. In addition to the more traditional teaching responsibilities, the successful candidate should possess strong verbal and written communication skills to facilitate collaboration as a member of the professional learning communities at Monroe High School. The ability to be flexible and problem-solve as a member of a collaborative team is essential.

Interested candidates are invited to submit the documentation listed below. The School District of Monroe is an organization like no other that invests in its staff to ensure a fun and positive work climate. The District emphasizes continuous professional growth to facilitate the development of our fantastic staff. Apply today to learn more about this position and become a part of a fantastic team of caring educators!

QUALIFICATIONS

The preferred candidate must hold, or be willing and able to obtain a TESOL (Teachers of English Speakers of Other Languages) or ESL (English as a Second Language) certification (Wisconsin certification #1395) or ability to attain TESOL/ESL certification.
